Fees, Expenses, or Other Amounts Payable

We earn our income through fees, commissions from providers, or a combination of both.

Fees for advice and implementation are based on the complexity and time required, and they will be clearly outlined in your invoice. Adjustments to your insurance during the policy period may also incur a fee, which will be indicated on your invoice.

Folio retains a portion of these fees for the professional services they provide to Overfifty Insurance Limited. Additionally, other fees unrelated to financial advice, such as credit card fees, will be disclosed in our recommendations.

Conflicts of Interest and Incentives

As your adviser, I am committed to acting in your best interests. It is important to disclose that I may receive commissions from the insurance providers for the policies that I arrange. The amount of the commission can vary depending on the provider and the specific policy. Details of the commission structure are outlined in the Disclosure when I provide you with advice. In cases of policy cancellation, we may retain a portion of the commission from any refund to you.

Referral arrangements may involve us paying a percentage of commissions and/or fees to the referring entity. If conflicts of interest arise, we will disclose them and take appropriate action to ensure your interests are prioritised.

Our financial advisers are committed to prioritising your interests above their own, and we maintain a register of conflicts, gifts, and incentives to uphold transparency.

Premium Funding

Premium funding allows you to pay insurance premiums in instalments instead of a lump sum. Premium funding companies charge interest and may have the authority to cancel your policy for non-payment.

In premium funding arrangements, the funding company pays Overfifty Insurance Limited a commission based on the funded amount. Folio retains a portion of this commission for services provided to Overfifty Insurance Limited.

We will disclose the specific amount when determining the scope of advice and your preference for instalment payments.

Complaints Handling & Dispute Resolution
